Subject: Blackmail at Mediterra -- Notice of Capitulation

The Advisory Board (Humble Servants of the Bonita Bay Group) to the Members (Serfs) of Mediterra (a David Lucas fiefdom) proudly announces its complete capitulation to the demands of our beloved leader Tim Boates.

At the end of June, Leader Boates announced that Mediterra members could participate in the deal of a lifetime and pay another $8 million in cash and $15 million over time for facilities which those same members had already contributed more than $60 million. "The opportunity to pay twice but only 45% more the second time is an unprecedented offer said loyalty minister and board chairman Rich Schmidt."

The idea in June was for Mediterra to maintain its air of exclusivity by having fees higher than all but a few other communities. The Lucas family was not interested in having the "just wealthy" as its constituents. Mediterra should be priced so that only those with more money than sense would wish to belong. The key to restoring property values is to make it clear to the world that "if you have to ask what it costs, you do not belong here." (Note to our under serfs in the coach homes -- your role is to help support the lifestyle of the upper class. Always remember -- you should be grateful that we allow you the opportunity to share our paradise.)

Our beloved leader also recognized that many of the Mediterra residents might be confused -- thinking that the $185,000 they had already paid was enough. Too many residents had it seemed never owned a boat or had a trophy wife -- the concept that you must keep paying was somehow unfamiliar. Thus, the beloved leader and the crown prince Joey Garon came up with the "loyalty test." If you wish to remain a loyal citizen you will sign a waiver of any prior claims you may have on our sacred Bonita Bay Group. Since you will have waived all prior claims you will gladly pay and pay again.

Loyalty minister Rich Schmidt is having a series of drunken love-ins this week to help members and residents reaffirm their pledge to the sacred Bonita Bay Group, the beloved leader and the crown prince. The loyalty minister will be serving special Kool Aid at these events. One or two drinks and all will see the wisdom of our capitulation.

The Crown Prince promises "once you drink the Kool Aid and sign the loyalty oath -- sorry I meant the liability waiver -- we can begin the process of ending daily beatings. for those who refuse the drink or to sign we will chase you your children and your children's children until the end of time."

As our fearless leader emeritus David Lucas tells us, "Do the Right Thing." His families' net worth after all depends on it.
